Thanks for providing your informative link. I am impressed with the volume of information available. A great resource for Kiwis travelling in Australia as well as NZ. (NZ Motorhome)

What a fantastic resource. I don't have a caravan myself but do love a weekend away camping and I will be sure to use it. If I come across any other events or websites that might be of interest to mobile travellers I will be sure to pass it on to you. Thank you for sharing. (Anon)
